

Yvonne Hollenbeck

South Dakota ranch wife, Yvonne Hollenbeck, lives on a Clearfield area ranch where her cowboy husband, Glen Hollenbeck, raises angus beef cattle and registered quarter horses. Hollenbeck writes about her life, whether she is helping outside with the livestock, putting up hay, paying the bills, or feeding a crew, and puts real life experiences (sometimes humorous) into her poetry, stories and weekly articles in the Farmer/Rancher Exchange.

Yvonne is also an avid quilt maker and quilt historian, and her popular program, called “Patchwork of the Prairie”, also gives viewers a glimpse of life on ranches as well as an introduction to the world of cowboy poetry.
